 Heya. Looking through the presentations again. Thanks. The Ts & Cs...other than one airplane a day thing, what other limitations will the client see that are different from a retail vista client? Don't mean our 8 total and block size...I want to be ready to explain how different this is from a normal vista client - other than the discounted price.

 IOW...what's different on page 12 or 14 than the normal VJ client.

 I'd need to review a current vistajet contact to be certain - but it should be identical - other than the 8 users a day, these are the t&c's in the contract we assumed. We essentially repeated what was in the agreement between us and vistajet.

 Perfect. I'd like to say exactly that in dialogues. Needed to make sure.
